

The Doctoral School of Political Science, Public Policy and International Relations invites you to an academic workshop:

Get organized: bibliography and data management

THURSDAY, 06.10.2016, 3:30 P.M. | MB, ROOM 202

INVITATION | We all use software programs to organize our knowledge, literature and data – yet, did we pick the right software for our specific needs? How can we make the most efficient use of the various programs and tools offered on the market? Join us for a vivid discussion on the advantages and disadvantages of common reference and data management software. We will talk about our own experience with a selection of programs and demonstrate important features of:

- OneNote
- Mendeley
- Citavi
- Zotero
- NVivo

PARTICIPANTS |

Erin K. Jenne, Professor, Track Representative International Relations
Vija Pakalkaite, PhD Student, Public Policy Track
Seraphine Maerz, PhD Student, Comparative Politics Track

RSVP to Kriszta Zsukotynszky at ds@ceu.edu